AFTER THE ORDER OF MELCHISEDEC

By Sam Fife

The Highest Purpose for Man

To be content with food and raiment,
the necessities of life

To be in a place free from the influence of Babylon and free to exercise and grow in God

To find your place in the Kingdom of God
which is coming on the Earth

Heb 7:1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; 2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; 3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. 5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises. 7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham. 10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him. 11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. 15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. 17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. 18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. 19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. 20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: 21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord swore and will not repent, Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek:)

The text of this study is found in verse 21 of Hebrews 7, where it says, "For those priest were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec."

The foundational Scripture upon which this whole subject is based in the Bible is the one we have just quoted in verse 21, and particularly this statement where it is said of Christ, "Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec." So many of God's people have gotten so bogged down in the experiences that are provided for us in the plan of God - the salvation experience, the baptism of the Holy Spirit experience, experiences in gifts of the Spirit, etc. - that they have never gone on to see the purpose of all the experiences provided through Christ - and that is, that through them God might bring forth a people that He could bring back under His Divine Order, and through that people restore His Divine Order to this earth, and ultimately to the whole universe. Therefore, few of God's people and few of God's Ministry have any understanding whatever of what the Bible means in Hebrews Seven when it discusses the Order of Melchisedec as contrasted to the Old Testament Levitical order of Aaron, and ends by saying of Jesus, "Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchisedec.

This is a realm of Truth in the New Testament that few of God's people have ever heard any teaching on, and yet the fact that it covers the greater part of two whole chapters of Scripture, chapters six and seven of Hebrews, makes it obvious that the Truth here contained has a very important place in God's plan and purpose in Christ.

Now therefore, the hour has come in which God is revealing to us that all the experiences that the Spirit of God has led us through since we have been in Jesus - our salvation experience, gifts - have been only to bring us to the point where we are ready to begin to understand what the Bible means when it says of Jesus, "Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

To understand the meaning of this statement, we first have to be given a definition of this term, "order" as it is used in the Bible. Most of God's precious people have not progressed to the point where they know what an order is. As the Bible uses the term, a definition of an order is ---- a system by which things are governed, or a governmental system. Thus we say, here in the United States of America, that we are governed by the democratic order of government, which simply means that the governmental system that we are governed by in our relationship to one another is an order called, "democracy." In Canada, the sister nation that is joined to the U. S. borders, the order of government that they are under is the parliamentary governmental order. In England, they are governed by what is called the monarchical governmental system or governmental order; an order in which, theoretically at least, their reigning monarch is a king or queen.

Thus, we have given you enough illustrations to enable you to have a true definition of the term order, as it is used in the book of Hebrews in the Bible. An order is simply a system of government. Therefore, when the Bible says Christ is a priest forever after the Order of Melchisedec, it simply means that the governmental system, or the governmental order that we will be governed by in our relationship to one another, and that we will govern the world by when we are that reigning ruling Manchild during the thousand-year millennial reign of Christ upon this earth through us, will be a governmental order called, the Order of Melchisedec.

Now I will tell you what the Order of Melchisedec is. It is a governmental order by which we will be governed in our relationship with one another and with our Head Jesus during the millennium wherein there will be no laws, no rules, no governing force but every member in the Body of Christ will be so yielded to and so led by the Spirit in that Body that he won 't move until he is moved by that Spirit; and yet there will be perfect order, and without laws, without rules, without a governing force, without a president, or a vice-president, or a president of the denomination, or congresses or legislatures to make laws, or policemen running around with guns on their hips to enforce laws, or prisons to put people in who break the laws - for everyone will be so perfectly led by the Spirit of God that there will be no laws to break, and no one to break them if there were. But all will be perfect order, and without any of the governmental institutions or systems that we see in this world around us today. But the Spirit of Christ will be governing His Body under the Order of Melchisedec, a governmental order where every member in the Body of Christ will be so yielded to the Spirit in that Body that they won't move until they're moved by that Spirit. When that Spirit is moving through one member, then all the other members will be led by the Head to submit to, and move with, that member the Spirit is moving through. When the Spirit ceases to move through that member of the Body and begins moving through another member, all the members in the Body will be led to submit to and move with that member, just as it is with the members in my human body today.

For you see, the Divine Order in which all the members of our human body are governed in relationship with their head, and with one another, has been set before us by God as a type and a revelation of God's Melchisedec Order for the Body of Christ

The Apostle Paul had this revelation. This is why he says in I Corinthians 12, that as the human body is one body with many members, so also is Christ one Body with many members.

Therefore, you see, our human body is not governed by a set of laws and rules, but it is governed by the living spirit that God put in that body when He first created it. When God first brought forth the human body in Adam, long ago, He didn't tell all of its members to sit down and have them a business meeting, a good Baptist business meeting, and vote them in a set of by-laws by which they should be governed in their relationship with one another, and elect them a president or a vice-president, or elect them a congress or legislature to make laws by which the members of the human body should be governed. But God put a living spirit in that human body for its members to be governed by, and He instituted an order so that when that spirit is leading through one member of that body, all the other members flow with it, and when it ceases to lead through that member and begins moving through another member, then all the other members flow with that member.

Thus, when it is time for my human body to move across the room, and the spirit moves the foot to begin moving, and begins to move through the foot, the hand does not begin to move contrary to the foot, neither does it say, "I'm not going to move with you" - but it moves with that member that the spirit is moving through. For when the spirit in my body ceases to move through the foot and begins moving through the hand, then the foot and all the other members stand still and move with the hand, as long as the head and the spirit is moving through it. Thus there is always perfect order. The members of the body never move crisscross or contrary to one another, for all are so yielded to the spirit that they are able to recognize the member the spirit is moving through and submit and flow with him.

Even so, two thousand years ago, when Jesus Christ shed His blood to cleanse a many-membered Body that was to be called out of the Gentile world, He did not instruct the members of that Body to sit down and have themselves a business meeting, and vote themselves in a set of by-laws to be governed by in their relationship with one another, neither elect them a president, or a vice-president, or a pope, or a king, or a congress, or a legislature - to legislate laws for them to be governed by but on the day of Pentecost, His Spirit roared into that Body, that that Body might be governed by the living Spirit that dwells within it.

It is for this reason that we have been born of the Spirit, baptized in the Spirit, that our gifts of the Spirit have been brought forth, and that we are growing up in the Spirit to the point where someday we can all move perfectly in the Spirit; so that God can bring in his Melchisedec Order, by which we shall be governed, and by which we shall govern the world during the millennial reign of Christ. It will be an order with no laws, no rules, no governing force, no presidents, no vice-presidents, no congresses, no legislatures, no mayors, no sheriffs, no policemen but where every member in the Body of Christ will be so yielded to and so led by the Spirit in that Body that they won't move until they're moved by that Spirit, and there will be perfect order.

When we understand this Truth, suddenly we begin to get a revelation of why God today calls us into meetings three or four times a week, where we are related to one another with no laws, and no rules, and no programs, and no governing force; but where each member in the Body is free to move as the Spirit moves him; and one has a prophecy, as Paul said, one has a tongue, one has a revelation, one has an interpretation.

What do we imagine God is doing with all this - is He only playing church, or is He only playing gift, gift, who's got the gift? Nay, what He is doing is consistently practicing us, and training us, and perfecting us - three or four hours at a time, three or four times a week, and moving as one Body and one Spirit in His Melchisedec Order. When the day comes when we have all learned to move so perfectly in the Spirit that we don't move ahead of Him or behind Him, but His Melchisedec Order has been perfected in us - then by His great tribulation judgment day that's coming upon this world He is going to wipe every other system of government off the face of the earth, and turn the world over to His many membered manchild to be governed by us after a governmental order called The Order of Melchisedec.

It is no new revelation to us that Christ is going to rule over this earth during the thousand year millennium, but it is a new idea to most Christians when it suddenly dawns on them that He is not going to govern the world through any of the governmental systems that have been known in this earth up until now, neither the order of kings, nor the democratic order of government that we have here in the U. S., neither the parliamentary order they have in Canada, nor the monarchical order that they have in England. For surely you must realize if there is to be a new Divine government, then there must be a new governmental system by which Christ will govern.

Even in the nations of this world, when they finally became free nations, they did not establish governmental systems exactly after the ones they had been under when they were in bondage, but they brought forth new governmental orders. In 1776, when George Washington led the people of this country to at last break free from bondage to England and the king of England, and a new nation was born, he did not then turn and establish a governmental order for governing that nation exactly like the one that they had been under in England - the monarchical order of government, or the order of kings - but when a new nation was born it needed a new governmental order, and therefore he brought forth the democratic order of government.

By the same token, just as long ago Isaiah prophesied a nation shall be born in a day, when Christ's Kingdom is established in this earth and a new Spiritual Nation is born, I assure you Jesus isn't going to establish it on the same governmental systems and orders that have been in this world in times past, but on God's Divine governmental order, the Order of Melchisedec. What few of God's people understand is that the Melchisedec Order is the governmental order that God first established for this earth to be governed by when He created Adam in the beginning. From the foundation of the world God intended for this earth to be governed by a theocracy - a theocratic Spirit Kingdom - and not by a democracy, as we have today.

Democracy is government of the people, by the people, for the people through law; but theocracy is government of the people by God, for Himself, through the Spirit. Democratic government is the best form of government that has come forth in this earth since the fall, but it is not God's perfect governmental order, and it is not the governmental order that God first instituted for the earth to be governed by when He first put man here. God intended to have a theocratic Spirit Kingdom in this earth that would be governed by Himself under a theocratic Spirit Order, the Melchisedec Order.

Therefore, when God first placed man here upon the earth one could not see any of the forms and institutions of government that we see around us in our world today - no congresses or legislatures to make laws, no presidents or vice-presidents, no kings, no policemen running around with guns on their hips to enforce the laws, no armies to back up the policemen, no prisons to put people in who broke the laws - for at that time, before the fall, Adam and Eve were governed under God by the Spirit of God in a theocracy. They were perfectly yielded in their natures to God. There was no need to make laws to force and compel them to obey God. Neither was there anyone to break the laws, therefore no need for policemen to enforce them or prisons to put people in who break the laws. The earth was governed by God's Spirit, Himself, in a theocratic Spirit Kingdom.

Obviously something has happened between then and now that has resulted in the forms and institutions of government that we see around us in the world today.

It is our purpose in this study, and in these series of messages to lead you down through the stream of Scriptural history and reveal to you exactly what did happen, and why

God's theocratic Spirit Order of government was changed into the governmental systems and orders that we see in our world today, and the institutions and forms of government that surround us in this hour.

In order for you to understand that, you first need to understand that the reason God could govern man in a theocracy when He first put him here, is because when God first created Adam - or first created man in Adam - He created him with a Spiritual Nature - a completely Spiritual Being who walked and lived in the Spirit all the time, twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. He didn't walk part time in the Spirit and part time in the flesh, as we do now, but he was a completely Spiritual Being with a Spiritual Nature that walked and lived in the Spirit continually. Therefore, in that state he could be in perfect communication with God, whom Jesus said IS a Spirit, so that God could at all times be in contact and communication with him, and govern him through the Spirit in a theocratic Spirit government.

When the fall came through the trickery of Lucifer, man lost his Spiritual Nature and degenerated downward into the nature of a beast; and became such a completely carnal, physical, fleshly being, with no vestige of his Spiritual Nature remaining; and therefore his every action motivated by his beast instinct for self-preservation alone. In that state God, who is a Spirit, could no longer even make contact with him. In Ephesians, Paul refers to him as being dead in trespasses and sins, dead to God and God dead to him, for there was no means of communication. Therefore since God could no longer make contact and have communication with man, He could no longer govern him through the spirit in the theocratic Spirit, governmental Order, and God's theocratic Spirit Order passed away.

After this happened through the fall, there was no governmental order or governmental system in the earth whatsoever.

Therefore man existed for hundreds and hundreds of years in that primitive state which we have come to know as the cave-man state, ruled over only by his own beast mind, with no system of government or form of protection for the weak, but might made right and whosoever was the strongest ruled.

At that time, if two persons got into an argument, the big fellow was always right, for he could simply hit the little fellow over the head and knock him out, and prove himself right in the argument. We have all read the comic book characters of one cave man going into another cave man's cave and hitting him over the head and dragging his wife away by the hair of the head. This is not too farfetched from the state that things existed in for hundreds of years after the fall, with no governmental order in the earth whatsoever.

Nevertheless, God, who is a God of order, began immediately to move to ultimately bring man back under His Divine, theocratic, Spirit Order, and to restore His Divine Order government to the earth. In order to do this God first had to redeem man from his fallen beast nature, and restore him to the Spiritual Nature that he had in the beginning, so that God, who is a Spirit, could communicate with him and govern him again.

This is why, in the book of Genesis, we find the first act God performed after the fall, was to kill a lamb and clothe Adam with a coat of skin. This signified that one day there would rise up out of mankind a lamb, named Jesus, who would submit Himself to God to be slain for all, that God might then clothe man with His imputed robe of righteousness, that he might be reconciled to God, so that God could then deal with him and restore him to his Spiritual Nature that he had before the fall, so that He could then bring him back under His Divine, theocratic, Spirit, governmental Order - the Order of Melchisedec.

Since God cannot force man, but must work through his free will, it has taken Him 6,000 years to do this. During that intervening period He has had to bring forth several substitute orders, which were not God's perfect, but the best that He could bring forth out of man's mind and heart up until now, because man had not yet become a completely Spiritual Being; but always working toward the day when He could bring forth in the earth a many membered Man whose Spiritual Nature had been restored completely; so that He could then be led by and governed by the spirit of God in God's theocratic, Spirit Order, the Order of Melchisedec.

When we understand this mystery then we at last begin to get a revelation of the real reason why God has borned us of the Spirit, and baptized us in the Spirit, and brought forth our gifts of the Spirit, and is growing us up in the Spirit to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. It is so that at last He might have a many-membered Spiritual Man whose Spiritual Nature has been completely restored, so that he can be in that perfect communication with God that man was in, in the beginning, so that God might bring him back under His theocratic Spirit government, and through him restore God's theocratic Spirit Divine Order government to the whole earth.

The Pentecostal folk and many others of God's people have been baptized in the Spirit for many years, and moving in their gifts of the Spirit, but as we said in the beginning of the message they are so bogged down in the experiences that God has provided that they have no understanding whatsoever of what God has provided the experiences for, and God's ultimate purpose for it all. They continue to play with their gifts, thinking their purpose is only to get their physical bodies healed and bring them blessing here in the natural world, and in the present world system, and failing to see that the purpose of God for borning us of the spirit, baptizing us in the Spirit, and growing us up in the Spirit, is that He might have again a second Adam, a completely Spiritual Man whom He can bring back under His Divine Order government, and through him restore His Divine Order government to the whole world. May God wake His children up, that they may cease to be children playing with the gifts God has provided for them, and submit themselves to the Spirit of God that He might lead them on to the fulfillment of His Divine purpose.

Now we shall go back and follow down through the stream of Scriptural history and see how, as God has dealt with man, he has progressed through several substitute orders, which were the best God could bring forth at the time, always moving toward the day when God could have a Spiritual Man in whom and through whom He could bring forth His perfect governmental Order here in this earth.

As we said before, after man fell and degenerated into the beast nature, for hundreds of years man existed in the earth with no governmental order whatsoever, but might made right and whosoever was the strongest ruled, and there was no form or system of government for the protection of the weak.

However, the Spirit of God was still seeking to break through to man the best He could, and therefore we find that after hundreds of years, because man has the flocking instinct created in him, men began to flock together in what were called tribes.

They began to have a glimmer of recognition of a need of some form of protection for the weak, and therefore each tribe elected them a chief, and delegated to him a certain amount of governmental authority - so that the first governmental order that came into being after the fall is what was called the order of tribal chieftains. With that, there began to be some form of protection for the weak. After that, when two men would get into an argument the little fellow had a chance of coming out right once in a while, for the issue would be brought before the chief and he would judge it, and according to the measure of wisdom and judgment that he had come to at the time, the little fellow had a chance of achieving justice and right. Therefore, for hundreds of years after that, the earth was governed by what was known as the order of tribal chieftains - the only governmental system in the earth.

But this, of course, was a primitive governmental order, and far from God's perfect. Therefore, God continued to deal with the mind of man the best He could, although there was no conscious communication of man with God, so that slowly, after hundreds of years, the order of tribal chieftains progressed into what was known as the order of kings. No longer did people exist in tribes, but the tribes progressed into nations, with each nation ruled over by a one-man infallible authority called a king.

We can follow this progression even in the Scriptures, in God's dealings with the children of Israel.

When the children of Israel were first called out of Egypt by God they were the twelve tribes of Israel, each with their heads of tribes, or their tribal chieftains. But after over five hundred years of God's dealings with them in their promised land, twelve tribes progressed into one nation ruled over by a king named Solomon. The order of tribal chieftains had been superseded by the order of kings. Thus for hundreds and hundreds of years after that the earth was governed by the order of kings, the only governmental system that existed in the earth. But about two hundred years ago throughout the earth, men began to feel the bondage of the order of kings - particularly in the matter of freedom to worship God according to one's conscience. Particularly over in England, little groups of people who later came to be called pilgrims would gather together in small assemblies much like we do in the move of God today, and would discuss together, as the Spirit of God was leading them - though they were not as aware of it as we are today - the bondage that the order of kings was bringing them under and what might be done about it.

Then they heard about a wilderness called America that had been discovered by a young Spaniard named Columbus, and moved and motivated by the invisible workings of the Spirit of God, in order that they might have freedom to worship God they made a long journey across the sea, into that wilderness; and there in that wilderness, over a period of time, they birthed and brought forth a new, young nation called the United States of America, to set visibly before the world an example of a better form of government than the order of kings, a governmental order called democracy - government of the people, by the people, for the people through law.

The example of this new young nation began to give courage to other people in the world, and having seen an example of a better governmental order set before them, then other peoples of the world began to rise up and come out from under bondage to the order of kings. Down in South America where we have missionary work, the national hero of five nations there is Simon Bolivar, just as George Washington is our national hero. For taking courage from George Washington's example, he rose up and led five nations to fight a revolution to come out from under bondage to the King of Spain: Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, Venezuela and Chile.

But what you need to know is that two hundred years ago from Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Patrick Henry – the fathers of our country who attended the first constitutional convention, which established the democratic order of government in this country - those great patriots, moving in what revelation they had from God, hoped that democratic government based on law could bring perfect liberty to the sons of men forever. But the problem is they forgot something the Apostle Paul said long ago that is still recorded in the Scriptures, and that is when Paul said the law can never make perfect, in that it is weak through the flesh, but the bringing in of a better hope can, by the which hope we draw nigh unto God.

The Apostle Paul revealed long ago that any form of government based and established and founded upon law, though it could bring a measure of freedom to men and it has, could never bring perfect liberty and perfect freedom to the sons of men, in that the law is weak through the flesh. Now the weakness of law through the flesh is that no matter how good and how pure the laws Congress legislators make are, they still must be administered by human flesh. Since the devil can always take over human flesh, any system of government founded upon law can always, in the end, be taken over by Satan and can never therefore, bring perfect and permanent liberty to the sons of men.

You can make the purest and most perfect laws that there are to govern humanity, but since they must be administered by human flesh - since the judges and the policemen and the officials who administer the law must always be human flesh, and since the devil can always take over human flesh - therefore, any system of government based and founded upon law can never bring perfect and permanent liberty to the sons of men; for the devil can always take it over by taking over the human flesh that administers the law.

Though it has taken him two hundred years to do it, that is exactly what we see him doing in our time.

For you are going to see the devil take over the very constitution and the very laws that were established to give us freedom to worship God, and take our freedom to worship God away from us in these last days, when all law in every country in the world is taken over by a one-world beast government.

However, you must not think that in doing so the devil is thwarting God's purpose. For God never intended for us to be governed by a democratic government under law forever, but He brought it forth only to give us freedom of worship - particularly here in our country - long enough that He could born of the Spirit and baptize us in the Spirit and grow up in the Spirit a many-membered Spiritual Man through whom He could bring forth a better governmental order even, than democracy - the Order of Melchisedec His theocratic Spirit Order.

Therefore, once again people are gathering together in little groups, discussing the bondage that government through law is now bringing them under, particularly in the matter of freedom to worship God according to conscience. Once again a people who are strangers and pilgrims in this earth are hearing the Spirit of God calling them to the wilderness, and once again there in the wilderness they will birth a new, young nation and perfect and bring forth, to set before the world when it is all over, a better governmental order even, than democracy - the Order of Melchisedec – thus fulfilling the prophecy Isaiah spoke long ago when he said of this hour, “A nation shall be born in A day,” – in this day, the day of the Lord.

As we see the devil taking over the law in the earth, and the governmental order which God has used for the last two hundred years to give us freedom of worship, you must not think that the devil is slipping up on God's blind side and pulling a fast one on Him by taking over God's instrument, for God is allowing him to have it simply because God is through with it.

For the Bible reveals that God never intended for us to be governed by law forever, but only for a period of time. The Bible tells us exactly how long God intended for the earth to be governed by law in a Scripture in Galatians, where the Apostle Paul says the law was only added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise was made. This tells us exactly how long God intended for us to be governed by law - only until the SEED SHOULD COME TO WHOM THE PROMISE WAS MADE.

In order to understand that statement, you need to understand that Genesis 12 tells us long ago God gave Abraham a promise when He said to him, "Get thee out of thy home, and thy country, and from thy father's house, and I will bless thee and make thy name great, and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." What God was promising Abraham was that one day He would bring forth in the earth a seed, a descendant of his, who would rule and reign over this earth and solve all this world's problems, and bring perfect blessing to all the families of the earth.

The Apostle Paul says in the book of Galatians that when God gave that promise to Abraham long ago, if He had said, "seeds," plural, instead of "seed," singular, the promise would be fulfilled in the Jews, the fleshy seeds of Abraham across the sea today. But Paul says since, when God gave the promise to Abraham, He didn't say "seeds" plural, but "seed" singular, then the seed that He was talking about is Christ, and we are the Body of Christ - Jesus, the Head, and we, His Body, make up God's Christ - therefore WE ARE that long promised Seed that God promised would one day come forth - a descendant of Abraham who would reign and rule over this world, solve all of this world's problems and bring perfect blessing to all the families of the earth. Therefore when Paul says in Galatians that the law was only added because of transgressions until the seed should come to whom the promise was made, he means that God only gave the law through Moses because of Abraham's descendants transgressions, and that it was to last only until the Seed should come that God promised Abraham would rule and reign over this world and bring perfect blessing to all the families of the earth. Therefore, Galatians revealed that God only intended for the earth to be governed by law until the Seed should come - and the Seed has come - we are the Seed, that many-membered Manchild that God promised Abraham long ago, would rule and reign over this earth under a BETTER order, and bring perfect blessing to all the families of the earth.

What one needs to know in order to understand this is that when God said the law was only added because of transgressions until the Seed should come, He wasn't just speaking of the ceremonial law of Moses, He was speaking of ALL law. For any lawyer will tell you that all the laws that we have in the earth today came into being through the root law that was given by God through Moses. Before God gave the law through Moses there was no such thing as government through law in the earth. When I was a young man, I thought I wanted to be a lawyer. I didn't know, God had ordained me to be a preacher and I therefore I started taking a correspondence course in law. One of the first things they taught me is that all the laws that our country is founded on, and all the laws in the earth came out of the root law that was given through Moses.

God says He never intended for that law to bring in perfection in the earth, but only added it because of transgressions, until the Seed should come. You see, if Abraham's descendants had walked in the Spirit the way Abraham did, you and I would have been born into a world that was governed in a theocracy by the Spirit of God, where we never would have known government through law. Because if Abraham's descendants had walked in the Spirit the way Abraham did, God would have led them by the Spirit to establish His theocratic Spirit Governmental Order in this earth without ever having to add the law, and you and I would have been born into that kind of world. For you see, Abraham walked in the Spirit. He needed no law to force him to obey God. He was governed in a theocracy by the Spirit of God. Hebrews 11 tells us that when God commanded him to leave his home and his country, and go out into a place where he didn't even know where he was going, BY FAITH he obeyed; and he got up and went out, not knowing where he was going, as God led and guided him by dreams, visions, and the revelations by the Spirit.

If Abraham's descendants had walked in the Spirit the way he did, God would have been able to lead them by His Spirit to establish His theocratic Spirit Kingdom in the earth without ever adding the law. But Abraham's descendants began to transgress. The first two generations, Isaac and Jacob, did pretty good; but then Jacob in the third generation had twelve sons, eleven of whom became evil and sold their brother, Joseph, into Egypt. Then God allowed they themselves to go into bondage to Egypt for four hundred and thirty years. There in Egypt their transgression became great, and their evil became great as they absorbed into themselves the idol-worship of Egypt, so that when, four hundred and thirty years later God led them out, they had become so degenerated that when Moses went up in the mount to fast and pray for forty days. the idol-worship of Egypt rose up within them, and they made them golden calves and said, "These be our gods, and took off all their clothes, and got drunk and entered into all kinds of sex orgies.

Certainly God could not lead this people by His Spirit to restore his theocratic kingdom to the earth. Therefore, because of their transgressions He had to add the law to force them to obey Him and to walk with Him, until He could finally bring Jesus out of them, and then bring us out of Jesus, and ultimately bring out of us that many-membered Manchild Seed company that He long ago promised Abraham would come forth, to rule and reign over this earth, solve all the world's problems, and bring perfect blessing to all the families of the earth. Therefore, this is what the Bible means when it says that the law was only added because of transgressions until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made.

In another place in Galatians Paul says that the covenant that was given to Abraham by God four hundred and thirty years before the law, which came four hundred and thirty years later, could not disannul that covenant - the covenant God made with Abraham in which He said one of his seeds would govern the Earth and bring perfect blessing to all the families of the earth.

The law which came four hundred and thirty years later could NOT disannul - it is still going to be done, not by law, but by a Seed and we are that Seed,

Therefore, since God intended only for the law to last until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made, and the Seed has come because we are that Seed that God is revealing and perfecting a better Order in; therefore God is perfectly satisfied for the devil to take over the law, bring the anti-Christ to complete rulership over the world. Bring forth the great tribulation which will bring judgment upon carnal

Christians and then ultimately judgment upon the whole beast system, itself.

While this is going on, in the wilderness and in underground places, God will have a people learning to live as one Body, birthing a new, young Nation, a Spiritual nation - and perfecting in them a better governmental Order – the Order of Melchisedec. When it is all over, and in the latter half of the great tribulation God had brought judgment upon the anti-Christ, one world, beast Government; and broken the backs of every governmental system in this world - then He will bring us back up from underground and out of the wilderness, and turn the world over to us -God's many membered Manchild, a Spiritual Nation, to set before the peoples of the world a better governmental Order even than democracy - the Order of Melchisedec

A couple of years ago a Christian writer from the denomination, who doesn't even have the baptism of the Spirit, wrote an article in the CHRISTIAN CENTURY MAGAZINE. The theme of the article was that we are soon going to see chaos in this world, because the reign of law is over, because the law has no more power in the earth. No one respects the law anymore.

Nations make and break covenants according to law. Both the white people and the colored people ignore the law in their battle for segregation or desegregation. The law can't even control the college young people anymore. They have the record in one of the magazines of two young people entering into sex relations in broad open daylight on the college campus, and when the police came and tried to stop them, the College officials shook their finger in the policemen's face and ordered them off the premises, saying they were the cause of all the problems.

The chief example of the weakness and futility of law was seen last July, when Billy Graham, who is supposed to be the Man of God, preached a sermon from the White House window to thirty-five thousand people as a Memorial Day sermon; and while it was going on, in one of the White House pools in plain view of him and the thirty-five thousand were about nineteen or twenty young men and women, completely naked, swimming in the pool - flaunting their nakedness before the man of God, and before the White House itself, the very symbol of government and order in our country - and the newspaper article said the police were afraid to do anything about it for fear they would cause a riot. This Christian writer said you are soon going to see chaos in the earth because the reign of law is falling apart in the earth. This Christian writer was, right as far as he could see. But the problem is, not having the baptism of the Spirit, he can't see far enough realize that it is possible to have order without law. Because while the reign of law is falling apart in the earth, in wilderness places and underground, God is going to have a people perfecting a better governmental system even than democracy based upon law, as good as it has been. He is going, to have a people, learning to live as one Body, governed by the spirit of God through the Spiritual Ministries God has raised up, under the governmental Order of Melchisedec - an Order where there will be no law, no rules, no governing force - but every member of that Body won't move until they're moved by that Spirit, and there will be perfect Order without rules, without laws, without a king, and without a governing force - but with a King living in and filling every Member of that Body. By the time the chaos has done its work in the world and the governmental systems of this world have fallen apart, and their backs have been broken by God's great tribulation judgment - God will have perfected that governmental Order and birthed that new Nation, and He will bring us forth, to set before all the peoples that are left in the world His perfect governmental order - Order of Melchisedec - and a Nation shall be born in a day!

Hallelujah - the Lord God Omnipotent Reigneth!
Amen!
